

Consortium Minutes & Summary

November 3, 2000

Mary Vaughan welcomed the group.

Jerry Christensen welcomed his fellow “mates.” He introduced those who were new to consortium: Karen Christopulos from Murray District; Mishele Carroll with BEST; and Karen Kowalski to USOE, Emotionally Disturbed and Mental Health specialist.

Jerry did a “browse-by” of the announcements contained in the folders.

Cheryl Hostetter presented information on the new IDEA CD. Cheryl showed how to use the CD (available from the USOE) and how easy it is. Current information on IDEA is available plus many links to other information sites. Cheryl also showed her link to Parent Watch, which goes directly to the preschool where her grandson is enrolled. This is like the program that the ULRC is instigating (Sorensen system) where they can do trainings via the internet.

The IDEA CD disks were passed out to those who did not get them. During the networking break there were computers available for the consortium members to try out the CD.

Presentation by the ULRC:

Jerry introduced the “fish” theme. The focus is on change, attitude, morale, recruitment and retention, etc. The video “Pike Place Fish Market” was shown. The four steps or principles that the video presented are: Play, Make Their Day, Be There, and Choose your Attitude.

“Fishing for Change” presentation or “How to influence fish”, gave information about different personality types and working together. Consortium members were asked to identify with four “fish” personalities. Each group met to identify traits they had in common and the personality types they had the hardest time working with.

Michael Herbert used the fish video “play” idea to tell about the PDP’s the ULRC has recently done.

The meeting adjourned at 11:30 am.
